Activity 6 - CSS selectors

Using the HTML below, style the two lists to look like the image on the right. Feel free to modify the HTML, but try not to add any new id attributes, if possible.

Note the following:

- The female characters are in blue text, and the male characters are red.

- Dorothea Brooke and Sydney Carton are bold text.

- Joshua Rigg and Madame Defarge are italicized.

- The list for Middlemarch is enumerated with roman numerals.

- The list for A Tale of Two Cities is enumerated with alpha characters.

- The list items for Middlemarch are spaced out more.

- The list for Middlemarch has been moved rightward.

- Serif font is not used anywhere on the page.

Can you achieve the same styling without adding any new tags (ie, without adding  or  or ) ?

You can directly download this project as an Intel XDK project. The file to edit

NOTE: Depending upon your browser, the bullet points on your list may be the same color as the text or not. (In the screenshot provided they are black). Setting those colors to be independent (or not) is NOT part of the assignment. Try it out in various browsers and see how it behaves.

NOTE: This activity is best conducted in the XDK (or in CodePen), not in the discussion forum below. The discussion forum includes its own stylesheet which may override the styles you want to experiment with.
